

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

4/24/2007

Statement From A League Spokesman

We are pleased that the 49ers have the opportunity tonight to present their new stadium plans to the Santa Clara City Council. The benefits that a community gains by having an NFL team in a new stadium are extensive, both from an economic and non-economic standpoint. The NFL and its teams have invested millions of dollars in stadium construction around the country during the last two decades. We plan to continue to invest as a league in stadium projects.